Are all "play games to win money" scams?

They are scams!! I played Treasure Digger for 6 months to get to $100 and I never received my PayPal payment. I emailed the developer 3 times and never received a response. Don't play any games from the developers of Treasure Digger or Rocket Star. I've also been playing Lucky Dice and Lucky Pusher. Once you get a high dollar the games quit paying real money, they only pay coins. These developers are making money on the ads and lie and cheat people making promises of real money pay outs!!! They need sued!!! A lot of people actually need that money.

It's disgusting!!!!

Yes and particularly all "National Lotteries", particularly scratch-cards.

I don't know about all games but I did a word game that paid up to $0.20 time sometimes double when I get to $80 and I needed a hundred all the sudden it only started paying $0.01 or two pilots do a commercial when I get to 90 something then I had to play other games in order to even get one point towards the $100

so the me that was a total scam

Amazon has a solution for employees who no longer want to work there - pay them to quit.

"We want people working at Amazon who want to be here," Amazon spokesperson Melanie Etches tells CNBC Make It via email. "In the long-term, staying somewhere you don't want to be isn't healthy for our employees or for the company."
