Ted Hartwell has been gambling since childhood.

Within a few years, he started skipping work to gamble, and hiding his growing debt from his wife.

In reality, the symptoms of problem gambling and substance abuse disorder are very similar: both come with higher-than-average rates of depression, anxiety and suicidal behavior.

“It becomes an addiction when there’s impaired functioning or just a tremendous amount of emotional pain and distress,” Fong says.

When that happens, he says, “It can be really destructive and horrific.”

You can get paid $40,000 to sit at home and watch movies and TV shows for Prime Video

Prime Video Australia is currently doing a nationwide search for a content junkie to fill the slot of their Prime Video Buff.

The main requirement for this job is to watch and recommend the latest Prime Video films and TV shows to Aussies so that they can discover all the existing programs added to the platform.

This job is a three-month contract; however, you can earn up to $40,000 during your stint. “I’m sorry, excuse me? In this economy? Not too shabby people.

Prime Video has tens of thousands of titles to choose from, so you’ll be absolutely spoiled for choice when selecting your top picks.

In fact, more than three in five of those surveyed (64 per cent) rely heavily on word-of-mouth or expert recommendations when choosing the best movies and TV shows.

“Just when you thought remote working was pretty good, along comes remote-control working,” Günsbergs shared.

Best of luck!
