Oregon is currently in discussions to allow betting on virtual events.

One issue is that no tribal casino is located close to the state's largest city: Portland.

Most sports wagering in Oregon takes place at the state-operated Scoreboard app and website.

That will no longer be the case when DraftKings Oregon launches on January 18, 2022.

In 2018, courts voted to allow each state to propose and create their own laws and regulations for sports betting.

However, the Oregon Lottery Commission holds a lot of power in the state and controls the state's sports betting market.
