If you win $1,000 from sports gambling over the course of the year, but lose $2,

000 from bets you lost, you probably don't want to pay tax on that $1,000 you won.

Don't forget you don't have to count your winning wagers toward your total winnings.

But how likely are they to catch me if I don't pay tax on it?

If you're used to using the free versions of TurboTax or H&R Block tax filing systems and are taking up sports gambling, you could be in for a surprise next tax season.
