Whilst you can shoot a video on an iPhone and use an online video editor, we always recommend using a video production company. Video production companies will have access to studios, lighting set-ups, and product videographers, plus they'll likely use a high-quality camera kit meaning you'll get much better quality footage and final result. A video production company can also help you determine the story of the product video, and how to script the video, plus they'll have access to animators if you'd like to add video animation.

Event: (461) Tampa Bay Buccaneers at (462) Minnesota Vikings
5 (-110)

Tampa Bay was NOT a good team to bet on last season.

In fact, expectations are VERY low entering this season as oddsmakers have set the line for the Bucs' season win total at 6.

That's among the lowest in the league.

And Minnesota is a team I am certainly looking to fade in 2023, especially as a favorite.

I say jump on this line NOW; I'd be shocked if it wasn't bet down over the summer.
