Is Online Sports Betting Legal in WA?

In 2020, Washington became the country's first state to legalize sports betting.

The move was widely seen as a way to generate additional revenue for the state and has already proven successful.

However, given the success of the retail sportsbooks, it is likely only a matter of time before this changes.

There are also horse and dog racing tracks in Washington and jai alai games. With so many options available, it is important to research before placing a bet to ensure that you are getting the best possible odds.

Who Regulates Gambling in Washington?

In the state of Washington, the legal age to gamble is 18.

Why gambling seems like fun to children and teenagers

Online gambling is often designed so that players win a lot in 'practice mode'.

Your family's attitude to gambling can influence your child.

If you do choose to gamble, you can help your child avoid problems by making sure they know how gambling activities work.

This might include limits on access to online gambling activities and the use of your credit card in games.
