Earnings are largely determined by tips and how many deliveries you complete each hour.

If you want to jump right in, try Rover or Wag - the two of the most popular pet-sitting apps. They work like many other gig apps. You sign up, create a profile and get matched with people in your area who need their pets taken care of. You can choose what services you want to offer, too: walks only, pet and house sitting or pet boarding. It's a solid way to set up a steady stream of income. If you're a good host with a desirable dream home, you could add hundreds - even thousands - of dollars to your bank account per month. What makes a space desirable is cleanliness and proximity to nightlife or tourist destinations. If you know your locale well - all the good eats, breweries and a bit of history - you could host a walking tour. Or if you want to get really creative, you could curate date-night experiences for visiting couples. During the pandemic, safety is key, and you'll want to detail the steps you're taking to make sure everyone stays healthy.

Each website comes with its own pros and cons, but you should experiment with multiple ones to find the right customers. No matter which one you choose, be sure to factor in the seller fees, cost of materials and shipping expenses into your sales price.

Betting on NBA spreads odds allows you to back either side even in situations where the sides aren't closely matched.

To cover the spread, the favorite must win the game by the margin of the point spread.

These will generally be in the range of -105 to -115 for most NBA point spreads

, indicating the amount you need to risk to win $100.
