How to legit check Dior Saddle Bag?

The most unique thing about this model is its shape which is not really that common in handbags as we mostly see the rectangle shapes.

Similar to the previous method, the shape of the flap was not successfully replicated either.

Besides the size and the shape we should talk about the print too: while the colors blend well with each other on the upper picture, the background of the fake bag pops up as the color is more accented than it is supposed to be.

Let's discuss the differences of its straps.

The stitches on the authentic label are made out of thick and high-quality thread that is super solid so we can be sure that the label will stay there for a long time.

Trusted by reselling stores & 80.

The stitching is so poorly done around the label that it might come off any minute whereas the stitches are very tightly done on the authentic label.
