When legalized sports betting first came to the Minnesota legislature this year, the money went in three directions: to sports gambling sites and tribal gaming operators, and 10% to the state.

Republicans argued the state's horse tracks would lose money, so they withh eld their votes.

The state's cut is estimated at about $30 million a year.

It would invest half the revenue to address problem gambling and half to suppor t youth athletics, especially in communities where juvenile crime is high.

But State Senator Matt Klein's amended bill is also offering horse track ow ners a slice of the pie - 30% of the state revenue up to $20 million, then a max imum of $3 million per year.

"Despite that offer, this bill at the current time does not enjoy the suppo

Andrew Lang (R-Olivia).

14 Best Magnetic Lashes of 2023 That Are Easy to Wear

I haven't touched glue-on lashes since I found these.

Let me introduce you to my favorite makeup innovation of the last decade: magnet ic lashes. Gone are the tedious mornings and Saturday nights of dealing with eye lash glue, tweezers, and uncomfortable fake lashes that fall off mid-conversatio n. Now, I always opt for magnetic eyelashes, whether it's lashes that adhere with magnetic liquid eyeliner (yup, that's a thing-more on that below) or t he O.G. magnetic lashes that sandwich together. Regardless of the type, magnetic lashes tend to be easier to apply, more comfortable to wear, and longer lasting than traditional lashes.

Still, as much as I love them, I'll be the first to admit that not all magne tic eyelashes are created equal. Which is why I've compiled a full list of m
