Depending on the type of winnings and the amount won, the payer should issue an information statement-typically a Form 1099-MISC: Miscellaneous Income, or a Fo rm W-2-G: Certain Gambling Winnings.

Regardless, if a taxpayer receives an information statement indicating their win nings, they must report all gambling winnings as "other income" on the ir Form 1040.

Must itemize: Taxpayers can only deduct gambling losses and expenses if they ite mize their deductions on Schedule A in Form 1040 Taxpayers will need to have mor e expenses than the standard deduction to itemize; for tax year 2022, the minimu m is $12,950 for single filers and $25,900 for married couples filing jointly.

This typically involves an accurate diary of the gambling winnings and losses, with receipts, tickets, statements, or other records substantiating the amounts reported.

Revenue Procedure 77-29 provides more guidance.

Full mobile betting with multiple options

Expanding sports betting in conservative Mississippi will be a tall task.

In-person sportsbooks only

Lawmakers repealed an in-person mobile registration requirement, but the small p opulation and lone legal option keep revenues small, despite Rhode Island's proximity to Massachusetts.

BREAKING: Sen.

Alabama is one of the few remaining states without a lottery.

The bill would have allowed tribes to add sports betting to their casino operat ions.

There are no fees to deal with either, with Philippine Peso being an accepted c
