But there's no official label on it - it's a 'baggage of plastic' and has a small number of pockets in the back.

It's not known whether it'll be the same size as the other bags, but it's available in two sizes - for £2.

It's currently selling in the UK at Marks & Spencer, with a black plastic bag in each, with a black border.

It's not clear if it will be the same size as the bag's bag from the Go odison bag, which was sold for £9.

But the bag is available in a different size and has a black border.
