HONOLULU (KHON2) - There was a lot of action Sunday - both on and off of the field.

The American Gaming Association predicts $7.

Rep.

Through the first three quarters of 2021 alone, there was about $3 billion in revenue for states.

They have a ton of taxes on it, but it's gonna go to a lot of good social programs," Rep.

The National Council for Problem Gambling said about 2% of Americans are vulnerable.

That would be about 28,000 Hawaii residents.

"Make sure we have a commission to watch over and so if we have someone that has an addiction to gambling, he or she can get the help that they need,"

he said.

It's just one of the most popular new online game shows on the internet.

You Need Expensive Equipment. You can start a podcast with the equipment you likely already own. You don't need to spend a dime on extra gear or software. There are many free tools and resources available to get you off the ground.

Define Your Audience

Another option is to create an RSS feed using a podcast-specific hosting site (s) Tj T* BT /F in the earlier days of the internet. Modern podcast distribution software still relies on solely on RSS feeds, but you don't need to have a full-blown website in order to submit your podcast to Apple, Spotify, or other directories.

Typically, if you're starting a podcast you will want to create social media profiles using the name of your podcast. While it might be appealing to create a profile on a number of different platforms, it's worth considering which your audience uses most and focusing on those. This is because social media can provide a great marketing opportunity, but only if you actually use it.

Google Podcasts

Your episode descriptions should be similarly concise, but you'll have the opportunity to insert relevant links to resources, products or anything else you talk about.

Submit Your Episode to Directories

Once your podcast can be discovered and downloaded, it's time to spread the word about it. You can take a grassroots approach, such as sending direct links
