There are no casinos in Utah, not even a tribal casino. In 2012, lawmakers decided to tighten the laws around gambling as a whole and decided to ban all forms of gambling, meaning no casinos, racetracks, sportsbooks, online betting, or off-track betting. Section 2a of the Utah law 76-10-1101 indicates that gambling is defined as "risking anything of value for a return or risking anything of value upon the outcome of a contest, game, gaming scheme, or gaming device when the return or outcome is based upon an element of chance."

The Brigham Cougars college basketball team have been a big name in the state since Jimmer Fredette took the reigns in 2001, they've made 11 appearances in the March Madness tournament, and though they are usually booted in the first round, the exposure for the team is enough to keep them fresh in everyone's minds.
