This is another one of those tracks that has somewhat limited live racing operations, though perhaps not quite as limited as Turfway Park, which you can see here.

As with the racetracks in many other states, they tend to operate racing calendars set to limit expenses and focus on simulcast wagering.

Much like greyhound racing, many horse racing tracks would take a loss without simulcast wagering and/or other forms of gambling.

” Generally speaking, most of the states in the United States that have legalized and regulated online gambling also tend to be home to actual land-based casinos and such regulation/legalization goes through same.
